

Long-term Revegetation Maintenance Plan for the Winters Putah Creek Nature Park Channel Realignment and Floodplain Restoration Project

The project area is currently unmaintained. Native tree and shrub plantings within the project area will be maintained for a period of four years after project construction is complete.