Solano County Water Agency is recruiting interns for the habitat restoration program.

This temporary position requires interns to perform a wide variety of tasks including, but not limited to:

- Carrying up to 25 lbs of equipment or materials
- Designing, constructing, and maintaining irrigation for restoration plots
- Implementing and supervising volunteer planting events
- Operating tractors, forklift, herbicide spray rigs, ATV's, backpack sprayers
- Maintaining, and repairing vehicles and other equipment
- Assisting in collecting, processing, and delivering native plant materials
- Gathering data using GPS units for investigations and monitoring programs

On-the-job training will also be provided to successful interns on the various tools, equipment, and vehicles.

Ideal candidate qualifications:

- Strong interest in habitat restoration, ecology, or related field
- Willingness to quickly learn and identify native riparian plant species
- Must be able to work in extreme weather conditions
- Must be comfortable working independently as well as collaboratively
- Must possess a valid CA driver's license with a good driving record as evidenced by freedom from multiple or serious traffic violations or accidents for at least two (2) years duration. Driving record must not contribute to an increase in the Agency's automobile insurance rates.

Work Environment:

Interns may be exposed to loud noise levels, cold and hot temperatures, inclement weather conditions, road hazards, chemicals, mechanical and/or electrical hazards, and hazardous physical substances and fumes. Interns may interact with upset members of the public.

Requirements if hired:

Driving record from DMV, safety training provided by the Agency, proof of vehicle insurance.

Compensation:

Internships are temporary positions ($16 per hour). The Internship is limited to 1000 maximum in one year. Medical, dental, vision, and retirement benefits are not provided. Candidates will be required to drive to their primary reporting locations, and mileage will be provided for work-related driving.
